

4th July 2021

I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats this bread will live forever. This bread is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world. John 6:51

The 10am live-streamed service on 4th July can be found on our YouTube channel here
This week's sermon will be by Bill Craft and the service will be led by Caro Staton.

Dial-a-Sermon: You can listen to the weekly sermon by phoning 0114 478 2270. Calls cost the same as a local call.

Virtual Tea & Coffee: 'Virtual tea and coffee' via Zoom happens at 10:45 - 11:45am on Sundays. Do log in and say hello if you're able - it would be great to see you! We use breakout rooms to put folk into small groups to make chatting easier. Click here for the Zoom link. Meeting ID: 892 3089 3636 Passcode: 363092.

Pidgeonholes: Now that we are back in the building please do check the pidgeonholes at Church to see if anything has been left for you, Please do make sure that you have use the hand sanitiser provided before leaving or collecting anything.

St Luke's Ramblers' next outing will be on Thursday 16th July - we're trialling a midweek ramble this time.

We'll meet in the church car park for a prompt 1.30pm departure, then drive to Calver. Giving lifts is now permitted, but please wear a face covering in the car. Bring your car if willing to give a lift (or if you prefer to drive your own car without passengers). We'll walk through the village and out and back along the river Derwent on mostly level ground (about three miles) and finish with a cuppa at Insomnia cafe. All welcome.

It would be helpful, but not essential, if you let us know that you plan to come.
Alan & Lesley Combe 2301759

Abbeyfield - for anybody for whom this may be of interest, this charity which works to provide various services, including independent, sheltered and residential care housing in various places around the country, has an opening locally for the post of Community Engagement Co-ordinator - <https://jobsearch.abbeyfield.com/jobs/job/Community-Engagement-Coordinator/768> . The opportunity arises following the closure of the Abbeyfield Home in Fulwood last year.

The Big Cliff Weekend | 24th-25th July 2021

We'll be gathering on the Cliff College site to worship, learn, relax and celebrate together. Philippa Hanna and Tom Smith (Soul Survivor) will be joining us to lead worship and perform some of their own music, as well as Daughters of Davis, OTC from the Message Trust, comedian Tony Vino and loads more.

As well as the excellent worship and teaching you expect from Cliff College, there will be activities for all ages across the site. Come with your family and friends and spend the weekend with us praising God and enjoying the beautiful Cliff site in all its summer glory!

The Big Cliff Weekend accommodation options will include camping, caravanning and single and double en-suite bedrooms. For more information or to book tickets please visit: The Big Cliff Weekend - 24-25 July 2021 - Cliff College

Annual Church Meeting This was held on Sunday 27 June with 54 people present. A more complete set of minutes will be available soon, but here is a summary of the main elections:

Churchwardens: Claire Marr ended her term and Grace Warren was elected (having been trainee). Joan Russon continues. Colin Roberts was elected as 'trainee' but has been a Churchwarden before so may not need much training. So our churchwardens are now as below.

Trustees Several trustees stood down after a 3-year term and five new trustees were elected.

The continuing trustees are:

Chris Ellis (Chair), Ashley Ellis (Treasurer), Peter Armstrong (Hon.Sec), Joan Russon (Warden), Grace Warren (Warden), Colin Roberts (trainee Warden), Claire Marr, Nigel Thompson, Ann Bielby, Gail Ashton (Parish evangelist)

And newly-elected:

Linda Russell, Elaine Curl, Carolyn Tsang, Caro Staton, Lesley Combe.

Sue Prestwood, Safeguarding Officer, is co-opted (diocesan rules require this)
We expect to co-opt three further people in other key roles to the trustees.

Church Prayer Meeting: During the interregnum there will be a Church Prayer Meeting each week to draw us closer to God and to each other, and to ask him to show us the way forward as we select a new minister. The meetings will take place each Sunday evening 7-8pm in the Church Lounge. Since restrictions have not been lifted, only 18 people can be accommodated each evening at present. Please contact me Tel: 0114 229 5866 or email: prayer@slclm.org each week when you wish to attend so I can reserve a place for you. Entry will be through the main church door. Thank you.